

Mrs Alice Ilona Davis

September 16, 1962 - March 28, 2018

Alice Ilona Vinson – Davis was born in Houston, Texas on September 16, 1962 to Albert Vinson, Jr. and Velma Tabitha Vinson. She attended public school in Houston, Texas and graduated from Phillis Wheatley Senior High School. She was an active member of the Wheatley Alumni Association. Alice attended Texas Southern University.

In 1987, Alice joined The Church Without Walls under the leadership of Rev. Dr. Ralph Douglas West, Pastor/Founder. She loved her Pastor and church. She eagerly sought to employ her gifts in the body of Christ. Alice loved attending the small group bible studies and served as a dedicated mentor in Titus 2 Woman-To-Woman Ministry. She always wore a smile and extended words of encouragement to others. Alice could usually be found with her Bible and biblical reference materials. No matter how she felt or the situation, Alice had a scripture, a listening ear and positivity to share to those with whom she came in contact.

Alice was employed by Baker Hughes as a payroll specialist until her health failed her. She continued to utilize her technical skills in researching scholarships, grants and jobs for family members, church members and those in the community.

Alice was blessed with two children: Ashton Cox and Aleigha Vinson – Taylor.

On March 5, 1999, she was joined in holy matrimony to William Davis. To this union was born Xavier Davis. They became a blended family to include William Davis and Nicole Davis who loved Alice unconditionally.

Alice made her transition from this earthly life to eternal rest on Wednesday, March 28, 2018. She is proceeded in death by her father, Albert Vinson, Jr; Mother, Velma Tabitha Vinson and brother, Alfred Davis.

She leaves a legacy of love to her children; Ashton Cox, Aleigha Vinson – Taylor, Xavier Davis, Williams Davis and Nichole Davis. Sister, Tabitha Lee (Fred), Niece, Chaka Matthew (Jermaine); two great nieces Madison and London Matthew; her beloved cousin Joseph Rice, Jr.; godson Kajuan Hall and a host of family and friends.
