

Ms. Annie Willrich

February 26, 1940 - February 10, 2019

Annie Pearl Willrich was born February 26, 1940 in Bradley, Arkansas to the late Alonso Harris Sr. and Eddie Mae Harris. She is the third child of four children. “Danny/Sugar Mama” touched many lives through love, understanding and prayer, throughout the family. She touched the lives of many people far and near. Few, if any, will ever forget her. She accepted Christ at an early age and joined Mt. Olive Missionary Baptist church where she was baptized, then later continued her Christian walk at Mt. Pilgrim Baptist church in Houston, TX where she was a faithful member under the leadership of Pastor Curry. Annie Pearl mastered her educational endeavors at Bumpham Public School in Gin City, Arkansas. Later she moved to Houston, Texas where she married Charles Willrich and three children were born David, Linda and Kerry. She owned and operated her own janitorial service. She loved to cook, loved to sew and care for her grandchildren and great children. She departed life on February 10, 2019 at Houston Methodist Willowbrook hospital. She was preceded in death by her parents; her son David; grandson Frederick and her siblings Minnie Pearl Harris, Alonzo Harris Jr. James Harris and one step Brother James Harris. Sister Annie leaves to cherish her precious memories her two children; seven grandchildren and fourteen great grandchildren. Linda (Temica, Xavier, Damien, Demetrice, Amariyun) and Kerry (Daunshae and Kerry Jr.), Temica (Timothy, Syniah, Edward), Xavier (Zayveon, Zaylah, Za'Maya), Damien (Adriana, Ariana), Demetrice (Kenndahl, Kamdehn, Khourtnie, Kenndris, Jaylen, Braylen), and Amariyun all of Houston TX. She had a special bond with her nieces and nephews Gregory, James, Wanda, Annette, Jacqueline, and Anthony all Harris of Houston TX; and a host of other nieces and nephews, relatives and friends.

Cemetery Details

Cemetery Beautiful

8401 Wheatley Street
Houston, TX 77088

Previous Events

Service

FEB 16. 11:00 AM (CT)

Mt. Pilgrim Missionary Baptist Church
908 E. 32nd 1/2 St.
Houston, TX 77022