“ Paw Paw, I've enjoyed knowing you as your oldest grand daughter for 32 years. You fought a great fight for 6 1/2 years and I surely know you're in heaven after earning your crown smiling proud on all of us. I will always love you and cherish the memories we had together. I definitely miss your advice, words of wisdom and your jokes. Although you're gone you will always hold a place in my heart and will never be forgotten. Your legend will continue to live on through the rest of us. Rest in peace Paw Paw until we meet again in paradise.

“ To my cousin, Jackie Lee and the immediate family; I was saddened to hear that the journey while not over, is allowing a sense of peace for the family. A peace that death can't take away. The love for him was evident in the strength you've shown for so many years. I am sending my love in these words and hope to be there on Saturday to offer any support you all may need.

Jackie, we always laugh when we reminisce on how we established that you and I after working together for years at two different jobs, that we were blood related.

Your great grandfather and my grandfather being brothers! That's why I feel it's so important to always show love and kindness to everyone. You never know in life until it happens that we all have family unknown to us.

Over the years we have never lost touch and this will not change. We bonded on that day so long ago, not because of our bloodline, but because of love we have as humans and the love of God.

Peace Be Still in your life and may his memories comfort you now and forever.

*With much love,
Connie Banks Smith*
