

Mrs. Irma Jean Phillips

September 27, 1946 - April 18, 2018

Irma Jean Howard was born on September 27, 1946 in Keatchie, Louisiana to her parents D'arcy and Lorraine Howard. Irma accepted Christ at a young age and was baptized at Faltine Baptist Church of Gloster, LA. She attended Phyllis Wheatley High School and went on later to obtain her B.A. from Texas Southern University.

Irma was married to Lawrence Phillips on August 4, 1967. They were united in marriage for fifty years. From their loving union they were blessed with four children Stephanie, Lawrence, Wendell and Natalya.

Irma Jean was a genuine loving mother and wife. She enjoyed spending quality time with each of her grand children. Her legacy was being there for family and anyone in need. She was an avid book lover and writer. Her home proudly displayed an elaborate collection of her favorite pastime.

Irma was preceded in death by both of parents, two brothers and her children Stephanie and Wendell.

She leaves to cherish her memory her devoted husband Lawrence Phillips Sr.; son Lawrence Phillips Jr.; daughter Natalya Milburn and son in love Michael Milburn; siblings Carolyn, Deborah, Karen, Darcy Howard and Charles Brown; grandchildren Jocques, Nala, Lauren, Darci, Wade, Milan, Michael L., Micha, Erin, and Tiffany; nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.
