

Mr. Johnie Addie Taylor Jr.

September 1, 1927 - April 1, 2018

On September 1, 1927, a son was born to Johnie Taylor Sr. and Mozell Randle in Houston, Texas. He was the second of seven children. They named him Johnie Addie Taylor Jr. lovingly known as Junior.

AS a child, he was baptized at Greater New Hope Baptist Church.

Johnie attended James D. Burrus Elementary until fifth grade, when his father died. He had to quit school and go to work to help support his mother and siblings. He took that responsibility seriously throughout his lifetime.

He served in both the USAF and the US Army during WWII.

Johnie Addie Taylor Jr. was an intelligent man. He was a hardworking, self-taught man with a quick sense of humor. He could even be called a prankster, especially with hot peppers.

He learned to drive at an early age and came to love vehicles. He spent many years tinkering around with broken down old cars.

Ironically, he became a Master Mechanic and retired from the City of Houston Vehicle Maintenance Department.

On Easter Sunday, April 1, 2018, Johnie Addie Taylor Jr. accepted Christ and was baptized again. Later that same day, the Lord called him home to eternal rest.

He was preceded in death by his parents, three siblings U.L. Stade, Norma Jean, and Wilbert; ex-wife Ernestine; daughter Gwen; son Johnny Jr.; two granddaughters Ericka and Krista; two grandsons Cory (aka CoCo) and Zion. He leaves behind three sons Willie Charles (Theresa), Vernon (Sandra) and Craig; five daughters Dianne (Rev. Paul), Marcie, Allyson (Johnny), Lori and Marisol (Joe); three sisters Ozell, Mary Beth, and JaRose; twenty-five grandchildren; thirty-six great grandchildren, a host of nieces, nephew, cousins, relatives and friends.
