

Mr. B. Davis

December 7, 2012

"On December 6, 1970 the sun rose in Houston, TX. creating a new life, the life of, Frederick Bernard Davis. Frederick was born to Willie Mae McGee and Billie Billy Davis. He was the fourth of six children. \r\nHis formative childhood years were spent in Houston, TX. where he attended public schools, and Texas Southern University. Frederick was employed by Exxon Corporation for over 18 years.\r\nFrederick met, fell in love with, and married his soul mate, Ruth Smith Davis. \r\nFrederick was also, the loving father of his only daughter, Treva Davis and grandfather of Christopher Stevenson.\r\nOn Wednesday November 28, 2012, an angel of death visited Frederick and he departed this life. His passing away has brought sadness to the hearts of many who knew, and loved him. \r\nHis father, Billie Davis, and brother Curtis Ray Davis preceded him in death. \r\nHe leaves to cherish his memory, his devoted wife, Ruth Smith Davis, his loving mother, Willie Mae McGee, his beloved daughter, Treva Davis, one grandson, Christopher Stevenson, two sisters, Angelia and Sharon Davis, two brothers Eric and Cornelius Davis, as well as, a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.\r\n"
