

Mr. Frederick Grayson

November 2, 2012

"St. Luke 6: 37-41
Do not judge and you will not be judge; do not condemn and you will not be condemned; forgive and you will be forgiven.
Give and it will be given to you: A good measure pressed down, shaken together, running over will be poured into your lap. For the measure you use will be the measure you receive.
He also told them a parable: "Someone who is blind cannot lead another who is blind, can he? Won't they both fall into a pit?
A disciple is not greater than his teacher, but everyone when fully trained will be like his teacher.
Why do you see the speck in your brother's eye, but fail to see the beam of wood in your own?"

Tribute To My Husband
Over the years, we experienced so much. For 22 years we've had a journey of love, laughter, joy and pain. There's so much hurt and pain I feel inside. Everyday I wonder why. On October 4, 2012, you did not go alone, part of me went with you. I honored our vows "till death do us part. Frederick, you're in my heart and that's where you'll stay. Still Loving You, Frederick!
Your Wife,
Mrs. Sherry
