

Mrs. Trula Jean Rydolph

December 16, 1935 - April 18, 2019

Trula was born on December 16, 1935 in Bloomington, Tx. to Mother Ruth Rydolph (Bloomington), deceased and Father A.C Thomas (California), deceased. Trula had one sister Travis Bringham, deceased and one brother Carl Rydolph, deceased. Trula attended Mt. Calvary Baptist Church in Bloomington, Tx and accepted Christ at a young age. She later moved to Victoria, Tx where she attended Palestine Baptiste Church under the guidance of Pastor ZeAnn Broadus. Her children are Theresa Rydolph, Calvin Rydolph, Julia James (Willie), Kathlene Rydolph (Joe), Sandra Reeves, deceased, Darlene Rydolph, deceased, and Kent Royal Rydolph, deceased. Trula has a hostess of Grandchildren, Great Grandchildren, Nieces, Nephews, Cousins, and Friends. She loved being around family. Birthdays and Holidays were always special to her. She loved to dance and every time she heard a tune she would get up and dance and steal the show. She was a true character and often loved to make others laugh. She was crazy about her grandchildren who would often visit, spending days and weeks at a time with her. Trula also loved sports. Basketball and Football were her favorite. She would love to watch them on television and attend live sporting events. Trula worked as a caregiver for years and retired around the age of 50. She loved to help others and had a true heart of Gold.
