

Mrs. Zerline Maxey

May 12, 1918 - July 29, 2018

Zerline Maxey was called to God's Kingdom on July 29, 2018. She was born on May 2, 1918 in Brenham, Texas to the parents of Lillie Burrell and Grady Williams. She obtained her education from Pickard High School and graduated in 1937. She was married to Eddie Henderson II in 1938 and of that union one son was born Eddie Alonzo Henderson III, who preceded her in death in 2009. She later moved to Houston, Texas and became the wife of John C. Maxey who preceded her in death in 1989.

She joined Boynton Methodist Church and has been a faithful member throughout the years. Through the church she became a member of the Sophie King Circle, Church Mission, and the United Methodist Woman's Club. Her hobbies were sewing and knitting. She helped with knitting classes at church for scholarships; made hats for cancer patients and made bow ties for the men at her church. Zerline leaves to remember her with much love and affection two step-daughters Gloria Little and Barbara Ellis; daughter-in-law Sandra Henderson; two grandchildren Dr. Marlon A. Henderson and Kendra Henderson; two great grandchildren Kaylin Henderson and Marlon Henderson Jr.; one grand daughter-in-law, many nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
